Terms and Conditions

The following terms apply to enrolment in classes offered by LBJ Maritime. These terms, along with any applicable license agreement, are the complete agreement between us regarding the courses or education materials we provide and replace any prior oral or written communications between us. Attendance at a class or your use of any education materials constitutes your agreement to these terms and conditions. Occasionally, we have offerings with additional or different terms and conditions. If so, we will provide those terms and conditions to you.

Bookings will be regarded as provisional until the full course fee has been paid. Provisional bookings will only be held for 2 weeks and will not be held at all when the course is full.

Payment must be made in advance of the course by check or electronic transfer.

All payments must be made in USD.

Checks are to be made out to LBJ Maritime and must have applicable course listed on the check. Preferably to accompany the application forms.

Please email payment@lbjmaritime.com for electronic transfer details or other payment enquires.

Invoices will not normally be issued for training course places and purchase orders are not acceptable in lieu of payment unless the invoice for the PO is paid before commencement of the course. If sent they will be accepted for information purposes only.

Accepted applications will be acknowledged and joining instructions will be sent prior to the start of course.

Courses and education materials

We list our generally available courses and education materials on the LBJ Maritime web site (lbjmaritime.com) We may add or withdraw courses and education materials at any time without notice.

Scheduling classes

We will specify the dates of public classes. Private or on-site classes will be scheduled by mutual agreement. We may cancel any scheduled class on notice. If we cancel a class for which you have prepaid, we will refund the price you paid.

Accommodations for students with disabilities

LBJ maritime locations should be accessible for students with disabilities. If reasonable accommodations are required for an individual with a disability, please advise LBJ Maritime of the accommodations in advance.

Prices and payment

Prices for public classes will be those in effect on the date the class begins. Prices include the use of required education materials and in class materials. They do not include taxes student travel, lunches, refreshments, transportation and living expenses. LBJ Maritime reserves the right to increase prices at any time without prior notification.

Prices for private or on-site classes will be established based on your requirements. Additional charges may apply, such as instructor travel and living expenses, facilities, and remote lab support.

You agree to pay amounts due, including applicable taxes and any late payment fees, as we specify in the invoice.

Cancellation charges

You will be charged the full price of a public class if you do not cancel or reschedule your enrollment at least 21 calendar days prior to the scheduled start date or if you do not show up for the class. However, we can give a full credit for a future class at LBJ Maritime's discretion.

If you cancel a private or on-site class within 30 calendar days prior to the scheduled start date you will be billed the full price of the class. However, we can give a full credit for a future class at LBJ Maritime's discretion. All cancellations must be sent in writing to training@lbjmaritime.com
