

DIVING FIRST AID

An Essential Skill that can Save A Life

Course Overview

This course is designed for the diving operation team that requires diving first aid qualification. This training is suitable for divers, supervisors and members of dive team in first aid and aligned with Code of Practice for Diving at Work (Singapore Standards SS511). This one-day course will cover diving first aid components and other health and safety at work information pertaining to commercial diving environment.

Course Content

In this course, you will learn the following skills:

Diving Emergency

- Decompression illness
- Arterial Gas Embolism
- Interstitial Emphysema
- Subcutaneous Emphysema
- Aural barotrauma
- Dental barotrauma
- Central Nervous System (CNS) Decompression illness (DCI)
- Spinal DCI
- Basic Divers Neurological Assessment
- Marine Bites and Stings

Oxygen Provider

- Integrating the use of Emergency Oxygen
- Emergency Oxygen delivery device
- Integrating Oxygen providing using CPR/AED
- Emergency Oxygen for breathing/ non-breathing patient
- Oxygen equipment assembly and disassembly
- Special considerations for emergency oxygen use
- Emergency oxygen / Talk through scenarios

Who should attend?

Personnel who has been assigned a WSH-related role in the organisation and is the workplace first aider in the diving operation.

Remarks: Learner without valid occupational first aid certificate and works in a diving operation will need to complete the full three-day ISO 29990:2010 Standard Occupational First Aid course before attending this one-day diving first aid course.

Entry Requirement

Learner needs to possess a valid ISO 29990:2010 Standard Occupational First Aid qualification or equivalent.

Learning Style

Each section of the book will guide you step by step through each of the essential skills required to be a competent diving first aider. Through the process of seeing, hearing and doing, you will learn how to provide first aid in an emergency both safely and effectively. As you complete each skill you will develop the skills, knowledge, techniques and confidence to respond in a diving related emergency.

How is it assessed?

Candidates will be assessed through a written examination and practical skills assessment. Upon successful completion, learner will be awarded a certificate issued by KBA Training Centre Pte Ltd and certificate expiry is two years from date of completion, or expiry date as per local/national regulation or guidance requirements.

For more information, contact KBAT at:

No. 15 Changi North Street 1, #02-36, I-Lofts @ Changi, Singapore 498765

Tel: +65 6542 4984

Email: courses@kbatraining.org

Website: www.kbatraining.org